Monday, March 27, 2013 Sketches, Colours, Promos & Blog Hop Good morning everyone! Today I have a project to share with you that uses one of my favourite new products! Sketches, Colours, Promos & Blog Hop is a release to commemorate Stampin' Up!'s 50th anniversary! The left side features Stampin' Up! products, while the right side is the new colours that are being introduced in the line and also includes one of the new Promos. I stamped the sentiment with Stazon Fine...I normally would have stamped with Versamark...but this is from the new Occasions line which makes me think it is mostly being used for the projects I stamp. I find that my pre-inked cardstock gets more ink on it with Versamark so I like to use that for my projects that I want to have the most colour! Sketches, Colours, Promos & Blog Hop products are being offered in a special mini set. This will be available online and in local Stampin' Up! stores. Hi... I love the colours of your card. As in you must be an artist...lol... it's easy to see from the quality of the card. I don't think I like the new stamp set. Those are the only sentiments I have ever used. I guess I don't have a lot of them. Post a Comment About Me I enjoy stamping and other paper crafts. I am a mom to two beautiful young adults, a daughter, sister and aunt to many. I love Jesus Christ and am saved by the grace of God. I am married to my husband Mike for 24 years and he is the love of my life.Description This spectacularly located, modern, two-level apartment is ideally located in an exclusive residential compound.
